Dear Harold,

Here's the article I read with Wecht's statements about the CBS show. Wecht hasn't said anything to any local papers about it, but then he's been appointed to a fact finding commission to study the Pittsburgh teachers strike and so he's busy with another thing he knows nothing about. I enclosed the other articles in case you hadn't seen them. The one on Lattimer doesn't say anything he hasn't said before, but it's worth a laugh. Hugh McDonald is scheduled to be on A.M. Pittsburgh the 22nd. He was supposed to have done the John Cigna show about 2 weeks after you did, but it never came off. I'll have to drag my body out of bed alot earlier than usual to catch the show, but I have some questions I want to call in to him.

Best,
Karen
